

Inclusive Skills Competitions 3 Year Implementation Plan

Year One - 2016	Year Two - 2017	Year Three - 2018
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Small portfolio of no more than 10 competitions - At least half of these competitions to host their finals at The Skills Show - Brief web pages to be set up on the WSUK website, migrated across from North Warwickshire and Hinckley College's website. - Briefs and marking schemes to be common across all regional activity taking place. - No use of the WSUK Competition Management System (CMS) or Online Registration System (ORS) - Use of 'Supported by WSUK' branding - Registration to be managed by the Inclusive Skills Provider - No requirement for competition results to be quality assured by WorldSkills UK - No alignment of registration dates is necessary. - No direct design support to be offered by WSUK. - Inclusive Skills Provider representatives to be invited to any WSUK Technical Working Groups and Workshops. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Portfolio to increase by up to 5 competitions, as aligned as possible to those in the WSUK portfolio. - At least three quarters of these competitions to host their finals at The Skills Show. - Growth of information hosted on the website. - Appointment of a lead judge per competition, to oversee standards across the UK. - Registration dates to align to the WSUK portfolio dates - Registration to be carried out separately to the CMS. - Registration data to be imported to the CMS after the registration deadline. - Use of some CMS features, including file upload facility and reporting. - Some heats to be co-hosted beside the WSUK heats. - Subscription to WSUK QA processes, including any online marking systems that are developed by this point. - Aim to launch WSUK Inclusive Competitions at The Skills Show 2017. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fully branded suite of WSUK Inclusive Competitions to take place. - All finals to take place at The Skills Show. - Competition fully aligned to the WSUK national cycle timelines. - Full use of CMS and ORS - Unique aligned brand identity - Full provision of information on the website - Consultative relationship with National COPs - Use of WSUK QA practices and design guidance.

We have a network of Competition Organising Partners, whose expertise and knowledge you are welcome to draw upon; their details will be passed on separately.